

V sredo, 22. 4. 2020 smo skupaj obeležili petdesetletnico dneva Zemlje. Čeprav smo letos zaradi karantene priča šolanju, kot ga še ni bilo, smo se odločili, da nas to ne bo ustavilo. Skupaj, smo vsi razredi naše šole praznovali ta dan na različne načine. Vsakega od nas nekaj zanima in vsak je individuum zase, zato je bilo za vsako triado na razpolago veliko različnih dejavnosti. Nekateri učenci so ustvarjali, nekateri pisali drugi bili aktivni v naravi. Izdelki, ki so jih razredniki prejeli od svojih učencev so prikazani v galeriji.

Veseli nas, da smo se zamislili o pomenu narave za nas in kako ji lahko pomagamo. Kot je rekla Marlo Morgan: "Gost si na tem planetu, zato se pričakuje od tebe, da boš zapustil takega, kakršnega si našel, ali boljšega. Skrbeti moraš za druge življenjske oblike, ki ne znajo govoriti ali si pomagati. Odgovoren si za obljube, ki jih daješ, za dogovore, ki jih sklepaš, in za rezultate svojih dejanj."

In drži tudi: "Zemlja, na kateri živimo, bo slabša ali boljša le toliko, kolikor bomo mi slabši ali boljši. In tu nastopi moč ljubezni. Zakaj če ljubimo, si zmeraj želimo biti boljši, kakor smo." (Paulo Coelho)

Skrbimo za okolje vsak dan, da se bomo dobro počutili čez deset in več let.

MAKE A DIFFERENCE

People on the streets are dying
Everyone said they care but they are all lying
Have you seen someone hurt in your life
Why didn't you help? you stab them in their back with a knife

We live together in a one big World
We can make a difference with just one nice
word so

Give him a hug
Maybe he needed a little luck
Give her a smile
What if she waited for it for a while?
Hold his hand
What if he is scared?

There so many bad people out there
Give yourself some love
Because I know it is tough
To battle this life with a good heart

It is burning everywhere
On the Earth, in the heads and nightmares
Others seem to ignore the facts
That their movements some things impact

We live together in a one big World
We can make a difference with just one nice
word so
Give him a hug
Maybe he needed a little luck
Give her a smile
What if she waited for it for a while?
Hold his hand
What if he is scared?

There so many bad people out there
Give yourself some love
Because I know it is tough
To battle this life with a good heart

I know it looks like it's so bad
I agree and of course I'm kinda sad
But it is hope at places there
Where we put our love and kindness

so
Give him a hug
Maybe he needed a little luck
Give her a smile
What if she waited for it for such a while?

Hold his hand
What if he is scared?
There so many bad people out there
Give yourself some love
Because I know it's tough
To battle this life with a good heart

I wish all the broken people better days
You will see the snowflakes
Also don't give up and make a way
